Permit To Work Health and Safety Folders & Holders

Protective covers for your permit to work system

Available in standard or custom designed formats and languages

Our range of protective covers formed an integral part in the development of the Health and Safety permit to work system introduced by the Oil Industry and are now in use throughout Industry generally.

The PVC used in manufacture is resistant to becoming brittle over long periods of use. Custom items can be manufactured to any size and with any wording and logo. Also any language.

Standard items are available from stock and can be shipped worldwide.

Custom signage, labelling and tapes also available. Contact our sales desk for further information and samples.

Price structure is based on annual usage.
